Understanding Anaesthesia ~~£32.99~~ • £29.00

ISBN: 0750648538 • Butterworth Heinemann • Jan 2002 • P/back • 480pp • By Peter J. Simpson, Consultant Anaesthetist, Frenchay Hospital, Bristol and Mansukh T. Popat, Consultant Anaesthetist, Oxford Radcliffe Hospitals NHS Trust, Oxford, UK. Understanding Anaesthesia has become firmly established as the introductory account of the principles and practice of anaesthesia for postgraduate nurses, ODPs and medical students. The fourth edition will reaffirm its position as the most comprehensive and easy to follow practical and theoretical manual available in this area.

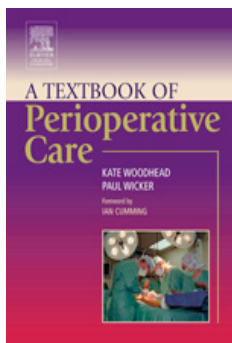

Berry & Kohn's Operating Room Technique, 10/e ~~£42.99~~ • £38.99

ISBN: 0323019803 • Mosby • Sept 2003 • H/back • 1008pp • 350 Illust • By Nancymarie Phillips, Director of Surgical Technology Program, Lakeland Community College, Kirtland, OH. The text of choice for understanding basic surgical principles and techniques. It is commonly used as a text for either surgical technology or perioperative nursing courses or an educational reference for practicing surgical technologists, perioperative nurses, and in-service training for perioperative professionals. It covers the foundations of surgical techniques in a step-by-step format to enable the perioperative learner to effectively apply basic principles to practice, and focuses on the physiologic and psychologic needs of the patients to provide guidelines for planning and implementing comprehensive, individualised care.

A Textbook of Perioperative Care 2/e ~~£39.99~~ • £35.99

ISBN: 044307285X • Churchill Livingstone • May 2005 • H/back • 456pp • 160 Illust • By Kate Woodhead, Independent Operating Theatre Consultant, President, International Federation of Perioperative Nurses and Paul Wicker, Programme Leader, Operating Department Practice, Edge Hill College of Higher Education, Liverpool. This new text will be the foremost reference source for all perioperative practitioners. It is unique in its approach to focus on the principles of perioperative care in a wide variety of different surgical environments. Surgery for patients has changed dramatically over the last few years and a text such as this is needed for students and practitioners in this specialised environment. This book will replace Brigden's Operating Department Practice.

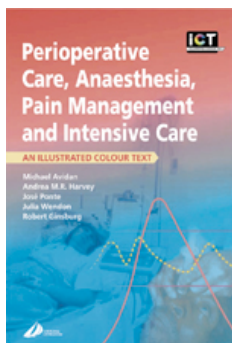

Periop Care, Anaesthesia, Pain Mgt & Intensive Care ~~£22.99~~ • £20.00

ISBN: 0443064105 • Churchill Livingstone • Dec 2002 • P/back • 148pp • By a faculty of leading UK Anaesthetic Consultants. A concise textbook on perioperative care, anaesthesia, pain management and intensive care in the Illustrated Colour Text series. Uses the proven format, with double page spreads, lavish colour illustration, tables, boxes and summaries.

Advancing Perioperative Practice ~~£30.00~~ • £27.00

ISBN: 0748753982 • Published 2004 • 248pp • By Mark Radford, President of BARNA, Bernadette County, Melanie Oakley, Chair of BARNA. This is the only textbook to cover the totality of perioperative nursing, including infection control and risk management. Other areas of perioperative nursing not addressed in other texts are practice development, management, advanced practice and the roles of key team members. All three areas of the surgical experience are covered: pre-operative, intra-operative and post-operative care.
