ABOUT BARNNA

OUR STORY

HTTPS://WWW.BARNNA.CO.UK

This is BARNA's 34th Annual Conference, the first since the pandemic in 2020. We have a proud history of putting on excellent scientific meetings which focus on anaesthetic and recovery nursing, both of which are under developed critical care areas in the UK.

This British Anaesthetic and Recovery Nurses Association Annual Conference will provide sponsors and exhibitors with exposure and access to delegates who have the capacity to influence the selection of products and services within their organisations. The conference also provides you with the opportunity to demonstrate your support and commitment to the field of anaesthetics and recovery.

The BARNA Board comprises of leading practitioners in our field of care, who are committed to developing education, research, standards and audit in peri-anaesthesia care.

WHAT WE OFFER

We are offering the chance to sponsor BARNA and/or to exhibit in the Central Hall.

It will also enable you to place your relevant training videos and materials on our website at no further cost.

Instead or in addition, if you wish to sponsor and/or exhibit at this particular event £500 / £900 will reserve you an exhibition single or double space with your logo appearing on all publicity and promotional material produced after we receive your payment. Your logo will also appear in sections of our website which are dedicated to this event, alongside any relevant training materials that you may wish to submit.

There will be a member of staff at the event who will be dedicated to supporting our sponsors and exhibitors.

The Central Hall is situated across the corridor from the Governor's Hall Suite, at the crossroads of the busy South, North and East Wing corridors of St Thomas' Hospital.

This is an open space where members of the general public and staff normally walk and congregate to enjoy music [played on a grand piano] and view the small permanent display on the history of the hospital.

For our purposes, conference delegates will be guided to and given time to visit your stand and the area will be kept open and accessible to members of staff and public, should they wish to engage with exhibitors. We will also notify nearby hospitals of the presence and accessibility of conference exhibitors.

Maximum contact will be maintained between delegates and exhibitors as refreshments will be served within the Central Hall area. The programme has allowed for ample opportunity for delegates to visit the stands.
